

are proud to present “A Public Branding”

Author and columnist Ben Trovato has been labelled everything from a national treasure to a racist, sexist, homophobic misogynist.

The truth lies bleeding somewhere between.

For the first time ever (and quite likely the last) Artlab is offering a series of LIMITED EDITION CANVAS PRINTS of some of the outrageous photographs that have disgraced Trovato's literary atrocities over the years!

It's the perfect gift for the person who has everything.

Or nothing.

Tell us what you want ...

Small or large, print or canvas, framed or not.

Order at www.bentrovato.co.za and we'll ship the goodies to you.

(Or mail contact@artlab.co.za for more info and pricing)
